WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW REGARDING THE NEW OSHA FALL PROTECTION LAW, EFFECTIVE JANUARY 2017

Wednesday, July 19, 2017

Location: BOMA Boston Office | One Center Plaza, Mezz. Suite, Boston

Registration: 7:45 a.m. | Breakfast & Program 8:10—9:15 a.m.

We hope you can join BOMA Boston for a free breakfast session on OSHA's newest law regarding Fall Protection Roof Anchors.

OSHA has signed into law the final rule on Fall Protection, and it replaces the requirements in place since 1993. This law states that all tall buildings must have Fall Protection Roof Anchors installed when working from their roof. Come and understand how this new ruling affects you and your building. The presentation will be followed by a Question and Answer session.

Speakers:

Peter Barletta, Compliance Assistance Specialist, OSHA

Patrick West, President & Founder, Cliffhangers
